Mrs. Lula F. Hunter

Mrs. Lula F. Hunter, widow of Mr. Charles W. Hunter, died at the old homestead near Appomattox C. H., at one o'clock a. m Nov. 4th. She would have been 57 years of age had she lived until the 13th inst.

She lost her husband when her 4 children were small, but by splendid business management of her affairs was enabled to educate her three boys and one daughter, viz: Lieutenant C. Evant Hunter, Lieutenant C. Kendall Hunter, Duval Hunter, and Mrs. Carrie Hunter Willis, now of Fredericksburer Va. All of the four children are of sterling worth, and most highly esteemed and respected; they are fine specimens of the old Virginia type.

Mrs. Hunter was a daughter of the late Hon. J. C. Jones and Mrs. Anna W. Jones of this county, very fine people Mr. Jones volunteered for service when the war broke out between the States, and fought most gallantly until he was wounded three times, losing his left arm in that memorial Pickett's charge at the battle of Gettysburg.

When the war clouds lifted he went to work, and soon became one of our most successful and useful citizens. He filled the office of school trustee, a member of the board of supervisors several terms and served two terms as a member of the Virginia Legislature He was at all times ready and willing to serve his people as a true and trusted friend. He could not have been surpassed He was also an enthusiastic Mason.

His charming wife was also of the old school, devoted wife, mother and friend, very hospitable and full of life.

Mrs. Hunter leaves to mourn her loss the four children named above, two grandchildren: Marion Gordon Willis, the third, and Caroline Hunter Willis. One brother, Dr. H. E Jones, of Roanoke, Va., two sisters, Misses Nina E and M. Anna Jones, both of Appomattox county, Va., and a large circle of warm friends.

Mrs. Hunter organized and was the first president of the first Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy in Appomattox county, was also an enthusiastic member and worker in the W. C. T. U, and was also a consistent member of Liberty Baptist church from her early youth.

Her death was not unexpected, as she had been in declining health for some months, but she approached the end with a well grounded hope of the hereafter and bore her suffering with christian fortitude and resignation.

Her popularity was plainly shown by the many loving friends who gathered around her bedside in the last sad hour and the large concourse of friends who attended her funeral and covered her grave with many floral tributes.

Rev. Hugh C. Smith, of Bedford, her former pastor, preached her funeral at Liberty Baptist church Friday, and his sermon was touching and very suitable, fitting the occasion

The flowerbearers consisted of the chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The active pallbearers: Hon. R. L. Burke, Sam'l L Ferguson Jr., Harvey Caldwell, J. E. Sears, J. H. Stanley and R E Smith.

Honorary pallbearers: C. W. Hancock, E. E Gills, W. B Caldwell, J. R. Caldwell, E. E. Caldwell, Sr, W. J. Trent, Dan Evans, R. G Robertson, J. H. Robertson, W. F. Wood, M. C. Caldwell, E. R Abbitt, J. A. Sears, and Robert Irby.

I have had the pleasure of knowing the deceased for nearly 50 years and can vouch for her sterling character as a wife, mother and true friend, and now, she is gone, let us try to so live that when the Master calls we can meet her in that happy home where parting is no more.

The tobacco market opened here Monday with one load of tobacco and that of inferior grade. Tobacco men here are not expecting a rush of tobacco to market and the farmers are not inclined to sell the crop at a loss However, with a season the market here is expected to be fairly active, for Appomattox has made splendid preparation for handling the crop and best prices will be maintained.

Little Catherine Harwood died of diphtheria at the home of her father, Mr. A. R. Harwood, here on Friday morning after an illness of one week. She had been an invalid all her life, and was very dear to the whole household, as she had constantly been the object of tender care and love of all for seven years—since her birth. Her remains were interred in the family graveyard at the old homestead near Pamplin Saturday The father on returning home from the burial took bed and soon developed a case of diphtheria, but is reported today as being out of danger.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

We want this Bank to be different—

To breathe a different spirit, to reflect a different attitude than is said to prevail in some financial institutions.

We desire that this shall be a bank of willing, cheerful service—broad in its views, generous in its sympathies, helpful in its strength—conservative only when conservation is necesssry to maintain that strength.

We want the conscientious interest that we hold for the welfare of our customers to be the magnet which will attract and hold the patronage of a discriminating and appreciative public.

We desire that this spirit shall prevail in every department and be reflected in the helpful attitude of every employee.

This has been our endeavor in the past. It will continue to be our aim and purpose in the future.
